

Filmoteka Narodowa: Film Stills Collection

>> View collection This collection of film stills held by the National Film Archive in Warsaw is thematically related to the history of Polish film (films, people, events, etc.). Digital database includes the collection of stills, negatives and diapositives; there are both published and unpublished stills and on-the-set production stills (from films created before 1989), photos of artists (directors, actors, camera operators, etc.) as well as photographs from film premieres. Each photo is accompanied by a detailed description including: film title and release date, names of director and people in the photo, their functions and roles, key words, copyright owner's name, photographer, etc.