Public consultation on Europeana

European Film Gateway News Alert

The European Commission has launched a public consultation to hear opinions on Europeana, Europe's digital platform for cultural heritage. The European Commission invites all organisations and individuals with a personal or professional interest in digital cultural heritage - and in Europeana specifically - to express their opinion, experience, and expectations of Europeana and the various aspects of the Europeana platform.

Deadline for submitting your answers is 14th January 2018.
