

SISTERS - The 10th Women and the Silent Screen Conference: Call for Papers

European Film Gateway News Alert

On 25-28 May 2019, the Eye International Conference will be hosting the 10th Women and the Silent Screen conference in Amsterdam. This year's topic is SISTERS and presentations may engage with the concept of sisterhood from a wide range of historical and theoretical angles, including but not limited to themes such as Sisters on the screen and behind the camera, Sisterly attachments, Feminist historiographic practices or Archival siblings and imitation kin. The conference is organized by Eye in collaboration with Women and Film History International (WFHI), University of Amsterdam (UvA), and the Amsterdam School for Cultural Analysis (ASCA).

The deadline for proposal submissions is November 30, 2018. More information at eyefilm.nl